FPA Australia Welcomes New Platinum Member

FPA Australia is proud to have recently welcomed Infinity Fire Protection as their latest platinum member.

Scott Williams, CEO of FPA Australia, says "CEO, Bill Lea, has had a longstanding and valuable involvement with FPA Australia through Infinity Fire Protection. Bill has contributed to various technical committees, Fire Australia Magazine, our annual Conference and Exhibition and has been heavily involved with the NSW State Committee and is Convenor of TC4."

"Corporate Platinum membership provides greater scope for Infinity Fire Protection to contribute to the Association and I look forward to their ongoing support."

Corporate Platinum membership is the highest level of membership offered by FPA Australia and is undertaken by companies who wish to take a very active role in the Association and wider fire protection industry. Membership at this level is at the discretion of the board and by negotiation.

Infinity Fire Protection is a 100% Australian owned company, performing inspection, testing, maintenance, certification, repair, upgrades and installation of all essential fire services in buildings throughout the eastern seaboard of Australia.

Infinity Fire Protection can be contacted at www.infinityfire.com.au or 1300 787 622.

Infinity Fire Protection joins several leading fire protection companies at this level.
